

Images Alberta Camera Club CODE OF CONDUCT

Images Alberta Camera Club (IACC) is a society based in Edmonton dedicated to offering photography-related activities to its members. Its three pillars are:

- To learn.
- To support the community.
- To have fun.

Participation in IACC is subject to the observance of the organization's policies, rules and procedures. Members are also expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the following guidelines:

- Always treat each other and guests with dignity and respect.
- Act in the best interests of IACC.
- Be mindful of the surrounding environment during photo shoots.
- Maintain a positive and respectful tone in all communications.

Any member who violates this Code of Conduct is subject to discipline by the club's Board of Directors, which may include expulsion from IACC.
