

Foto Friday is a collective of creatives who walk their cameras in urban and rural spaces every Friday morning.

Expect nothing, but count on:

- A 'pinned' place to meet up, usually 9:30 or 10am.
- A social gathering of 10 to 15 or more humans that come together, both old and new, the constant and the occasional.
- A wander alone, with a friend or within a small group.
- A foto challenge if you want one.
- Lunch together, it's a slice of Foto Friday.
- A place to post your images if you like on FB

Organic in nature...decisions are made along the way. Weekly locations depend on weather, community events, and welcomed suggestions. Our hope is to grow our personal photography practice and find inspiration from each other. ~ 22-10-04
